FIERCE FIGHTING TAKES PLACE AT LEECH LAKE.

A Major, Six Privates and One Indian Policeman Slain-Thirty Reds Made to Bite the Dust by Our Soldiers-Other Items.

Fighting at Leech Lake.

Minneapolis, Oct. 6, 5:00 p. m .- A Walker special says: "Maj. Wilkinson, six privates and one Indian policeman are dead. Col. Sheehan was slightly wounded. Thirty Indians are dead. A dispatch boat has just returned from the battleground. There was desperate fighting all morning.

"The dispatch boat brought out Deputy Marshal Talman and Capt. Sheehan, who is not badly wounded. While the boat was transferring the wounded she was fired upon from ambush. This was the signal for reopening hostilities. The troops opened on the Indians and soon as fierce a fight was in progress as that of yesterday. We landed provisions and medicines. The firing became so hot we were compelled to weigh anchor and and steam out into the lake. The Indians appear to be in force.

"Bacon's command is too small to take the aggressive. The detachment is entrenched in a good position and can hold out as long as the ammunition lasts. When reinforcements arrive they will wreak vengeance on the pillagers in their own way. The fight is not half over yet, the biggest battle remains to be fought.

"Wilkinson was first shot through the leg, had it dressed, took the field again and was shortly afterwards shot through the body. Lying in a pool of blood, he raised himself on his elbow and shouted to Gen. Bacon:

["'Give them hell, general; never mind about me.'

Petrel-Emperor Not Dead. The United States cruiser Boston and the gunboat Petrel, accompanied by the collier Nero have left Manila Bay for China. The Chinese legation in Paris publishes an official communication formally denying all reports of the death of the emperor of China. The German warship Kaiserin Augusta has left Kiro-Chou for Taku, at the entrance of the Pei-Ho River, with thirty marines who were sent to Pekin to act as a guard for the German legation there. Prince Henry of Prussia will command the squadron in China.

PRAYS FOR A RECEIVER.

Mismanagement Charged in the National Linseed Oil Co.

A second bill praying for a receiver for the National Linseed Oil Company has been filed in the United States court in Chicago by John R. Evans of Indiana. Mr. Evans avers that he owns $1,150,000 worth of the company's stock, and repeats the charges of mismanagement made in the first bill. It is declared in the bill that appointment of a receiver is imperative in order to secure the interests of the stock-

Shuts Out Minor Parties.

The minor political parties in Ohio under a decision rendered by the supreme court will have to comply with the Pugh amendment to the Australian ballot law, which requires that the signers to petitions to get these party tickets on the ballot must pledge themselves to vote the ticket they ask to be given a place on the ballot. This will practically exclude most of the minor parties, as their total vote in the state does not reach the number of signatures required by law to the petitions.

Murderer in California.

Chief of Police Lees of San Francisco has been requested by the Denver police to arrest R. C. Becker, supposed to be hiding in that city. Becker is charged with the murder if Otto Goette, a sheep herder, who disappeared from his ranch, forty miles from Denver, two weeks ago. It is supposed that the murder was committed for the purpose of robbery, as his sheep were sold for $3,200 by a man supposed to Children Come in Swarms. School children were everywhere in evidence about the railroad stations in Omaha September 30. Every incoming train brought its quota of small boys and girls to participate in the pleasure of children's day at the exposition, and the cars that carried them were labeled with myriads of handkerchiefs that fluttered into the station. The delegations from Hastings and Holdridge were first to arrive. They came in three coaches, followed shortly after by parties of children from Beatrice and Wymore who filled four cars. The boys and girls attending the schools of Blair turned out in greatest numbers. There were 900 of them. They had their own band, a military band of twenty members, who wore striking uniforms and played patriotic airs whenever a station was passed and they had a special train or twelve coaches through which they romped and played and had a good time until the exposition grounds were reached They were in charge of their superintendent, W. K. Fowler.

Farrington's Sensational Case.

Quite a sensational case was brought beore County Judge Hannibal at St. Pau one day last week. It appears that some time ago an indictment for embezzlemen was found in Pottawattamie County, Iowa against one W. M. Farrington of Council Bluffs, who fled. An extradition warran was granted by Gov. Holcomb of this state and Sheriff John S. Morgan of Pottawattamie County, Iowa, captured his man in Scotia, this state. On the arriva of the train in St. Paul the sheriff was stopped by a writ of habeas corpus issued by County Judge Hannibal, ordering hin Beatrice district, G. W. Isham, presiding to bring his prisoner before his court in stead of proceeding to Council Bluffs. The hearing was to have taken place before Judge Hannibal, who, however, granted defendant a continuance of thirty days blocking the whole judicial machinery for that length of time. In addition the defendant, Harrington, now sues Sherit Morgan for $200 damages.

Court-Martial a Nebraskan.

Sergeant Gallagher of Company M Third Nebraska regiment, was tried by court-martial at Jacksonville, Fia., on the charge of circulating slanderous reports concerning Camp Cuba Libre. It is claimed that Gallagher wrote to his father that at the time of the corps parade, held August 31, seven men had died as the direct result of the parade, and 100 had beer physically ruined for life. The letter was sent by Gallagher's father to the secretary of war, the latter sending it to Jacksonville and Gallagher's arrest and trial followed. The result has not been made

It Was Loaded.

A distressing accident occurred at the home of E. S. Rand in Wahoo a few days since. Mr. Rand's son, H. O., of Colon and his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Barnes of Ulysses, were present with their families. One of the little ones fished a loaded revolver from behind a bookcase and in some manner the weapon was discharged. The ball passed through a little boy's finger, entered a little girl's arm and odged somewhere in her shoulder and cannot yet be located. The wound is painful though not necessarily dangerous.

Ellenwood Found Guilty.

The committee of the Methodist Episcopal conference, after three days' investigation at Fairbury against C. W. Ellenwood, late chancellor of Wesleyan University at Lincoln, reported, sustaining all charges against Prof. Ellenwood and recommended that he be expelled from the ministry and church. The report was accepted by the conference. The committee found that Ellenwood had failed to account for $39,000 of university funds, and while the diocese set up a counter claim for $18,000, the committee would not admit it.

Beatrice Raids the Bicyclists. Several days ago Beatrice's city authoriies decided to prosecute all violators of the bicycle ordinance. Several arrests were made for using the sidewalks and now the police will arrest those found without bells and lights on their wheels. About ten have been taken in, including one woman. In a little while after a number of riders appeared on the streets carrying barn lanterns, Japanese lanterns and every conceivable kind of light contrivance.
